The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Tuesday, says: Charles Wulcott, of Eldridge, Pa, arrived here last Saturday night from Maysville, Ky, on the steamer St. Lawrence, in company with a man named Alex. Hammond. Wolcott was last seen last Sunday morning at seven o'clock, at the Snyder House. He had about $800 in cash and two checks for $1,000 each, owing to which fact there is considerable anxiety as to his whereabout. as to his whereabouts.

The American Eagle.

See the immage of this bird on the standard silver dollar. He spreads his wings and seems as if about to scream with wild delight. Such enthusiasm may well possess the people who have been cured of chronic indigestion by using Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. Thomas J. Purcell, yard master of Camden Station, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, at Baltimore, writes, "There is nothing as good as Brown's Iron Bitters. It cured me of chronic indigestion, from which I suffered thirteen years."

THE State Teachers' Association, which meets in Lexington July 4th, promises to be one of the largest meetings of the kind ever held in the State. The President of the Association, Mr. Allen, is admirably fitted for the position, and has been quite enhusiastic in organizing the Association and in working up an interest in it. There will be about fifteen hundred teachers, male and female, in attendance, all of whom are actively engaged in teaching and who are interested in the work of the association. The meeting will be held in the new court house and will be in progress about one week. The meeting will be of interest to all who are interested in the cause of clearing and will be represented by the trip.

Mr. Virginia White, one of our younged to Mr. Virginia white, one of the younged to make the continuation of the work of the substitution. The meeting will be held in the new court house and will be in progress about one week. The meeting will be of interest to all who are interested in the cause of education, and every one should give it the consideration and encouragement it deserves to receive.

MORE DEATHS AT PLYMOUTH. AND THE SCOURGE SPREADING. *

Among the Salmon Fishers.

WILKESHARINE, Pa., May 27.—The hospital feeling that hed been raise in Prytonouth by the light death roll for the past few days has given way once more to profound despondency. Not a death occurred on Friday, but since morning ten victims have been numbered. Among them was John Rechants. He leave a widow and ten children. Two married women, the mothers of large families, were also among the dead—Max. William Mayer and Max. Jane Nesbitt. The Pour Plymonth physicians reported eleven new cases, brought about largely, they believe, by the hot weather. Despite the utmost endoavors of the physicians and the relief committee it is almost help the committee in the committee in the new of the physicians and the relief committee it is almost properly of the physicians and the relief committee it is almost properly of the physicians and the relief committee it is almost broke out and the most criminal carclessness broken the physicians and the relief committee it is almost almost appendicularly as when the epidemic Despita and the relief committee it is almost a physician to the physician of the physician of the physician carclessness there, and two deaths have occurred. The hospital now contains forty-four patients class and nurse brought from Philadelphia. As soon as accommodations can be provided more of the sick will be taken to the hospital, as it is the only place where they can receive proper attendance and care. As yet no there are several patients who are in the last stage, and who are not expected to live. More money is greatly needed, and the relief committees its suing another appeal to the country.

Strikling Fishermen Resum Work.

FORTLAND, Ore, May 27.—The hundreds of fishermen who have been participating in the strike among the various large canning establishments along the Lower Columbia offered and gone to work. The canner proprietors offered fifty cents for every fish caught and elileveed. The canner proprietors offered fifty cents for every fish caught and elileveed the charmen declined the terms and demanded seventy-five code their demands, the fishermen yielded and resumed work. It is thought no further trouble will occur during the season. About 1,800 mes are now employed catching salmon. A one time the authorities feared very threats that they would burn the city of Astoria and meanced the lives of its citizens. The grand Jury has just returned indicements against a number of fishermen for violent and riotous proceedings.

Colored Ku-Kiux is Georgia.

FARBURKS, Ga., May 27.—Considerable excitement exists in this section owing to troubles between colored laborers. The approach of exton-chopping time always gives be obtained. To meet this demand large numbers of men have been brought from Atlanta and other cities. This arrival has aroused the hostility of the resident negroes, who have organized for the purpose of driving them out. The plantation of O. H. Control of the color of the c gers are all leaving under threats made against them. Striking Savr-MIII Handts. HANNIBAL, Mo., May 27.—The strike among the employees of the Hannibal sav-mill company remains practically the same. The company will make no concessions, as it is claimed the profits is so small at present that it pays better to let the mill stand tidle than to raise the wages. Twe handred employee are out of smployment. The men in one lumber yard talk of striking The men in one lumber yard talk of striking. Northwestern laid off seventy-dwe men, and other yards will begin laying off men this week on account of dull business.

A Legislator Aiding Strikers.

HANNIBAL Mo, May 37.—A delegation of the Bevire strikers, leaded by Hon. D. D. Richards, member of the legislature, are in the city. It is understood the object of the visit is to endeavor to persuade the train mer to refuse to move trains of coal from Bevier mines. It is said that the railroad men are favorable to the strikers, but their probable action in the matter can not be learned.

DENVER, Col. May 37.—Receiver Jackson of the Denver & Rio Grande, Strike of the Denver & Rio Grande railway, of fered a reward of $1,000 for the arress of the Rio Grande passenger train mars Denver There is nothing now in regard to the explosion. The strikers did not hold their customary mass meeting, and all is quiet regarding the strike.
